

Handling your enquiry or complaint

Summary of procedures

Enquiries

If you have any enquiries you should contact the Member Services team.

If the Member Services team is unable to deal with your enquiry over the telephone you may be asked to put your enquiry in writing and provide a contact address for the reply. We will generally reply to your enquiry within 28 days. However, sometimes further time is required for more complicated matters. If we need more time, we'll let you know.

Our internal dispute resolution (complaints) process

Depending on the nature of your complaint we may ask for your complaint in writing. The matter will be investigated by the Complaints Officer and we will endeavour to advise you of our decision within 45 days of receipt of the complaint, however, complicated complaints may take longer (up to 90 days) to respond to you. Complaints will be dealt with in accordance with the Trustee's Privacy Policy and no fees will be applicable, where a written complaint is received from an eligible person (i.e. a member or former member of MAP Superannuation Plan), a person acting for the estate of a former member, or a person who has an interest in the death benefit.

If you are not satisfied with the final decision or if you are not provided with a response within 90 days from the date that your complaint is received, you may lodge a complaint with the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA), our external dispute resolution (EDR) scheme.

Our EDR scheme – AFCA

AFCA is an EDR scheme that deals with complaints from consumers in the financial system. Commencing from 1 November 2018, AFCA is operated by a not-for-profit company limited by guarantee authorised by the Federal Government.

The table below shows the types of complaints you can lodge with AFCA, and the applicable time limits.
