Identification Requirements

The Trustee maintains high standards of security for the protection of members including strict adherence to legislation which requires us to verify your identity. The Trustee must be reasonably satisfied that you exist and you are who you claim to be. We do this by asking you to provide certified identification documents.

About the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing ACT 2006 (AML/CTF Act)

In 2006 the Federal Government enacted the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Act). The purpose of this legislation is to enable Australia's financial sector to maintain international business relationship, detect and prevent money laundering and terrorism financing by meeting the needs of law enforcement agencies and to bring Australia into line with international standards. As the trustee is a reporting entity pursuant to the AML/CTF Act, we must meet stringent investor identification and verification requirements.

Documents required to confirm your identity:

1. One document from Section A, OR
2. One document from Section B AND Section C.

Section A
Current driver's licence issued under State or Territory Law. Passport.
Section B	Section C
Birth certificate or birth extract. Citizenship certificate issued by the Commonwealth. Pension card issued by Centrelink that entitles the person to financial benefits.	Copy of a rates, electricity or gas bill issued within the last twelve months, with the same address and name as on your record with the Fund. Copy of a tax return letter from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO), issued within the last twelve months, with the same address and name as on your record with the Fund. A letter from Centrelink or the Department of Veterans' Affairs with the same address and name as on your record with the Fund.

Who can certify identification?

You must have your identification document(s) certified as being a true copy of the original document. The person who is authorised to certify documents must sight the original and the copy to make sure both documents are identical, then make sure all pages have been certified as true copies by writing or stamping 'certified true copy of the original' followed by their signature, printed name, qualification, contact number and date. The following table outlines who can certify documents to meet this requirement. The Trustee reserves the right to request further documents at any time to confirm your identity.
