5. Terms and conditions

Background

- OneVue Wealth Services Limited (ABN 70 120 380 627) (the “Platform Provider”) will provide:
 - the Secure Online Portal and the Products to you as an Authorised Representative of your Dealer Group, and
 - access to the Secure Online Portal to the Promoters.
- All remuneration Adviser is entitled to (“Adviser Fee”) will be paid into the nominated bank account of your Dealer Group at the rate specified on the application form for each client introduced to the Platform Provider.

Your obligations as an Adviser

You agree to:

Anti-Money Laundering

- act as an agent of the Platform Provider to carry out identification and verification procedures pursuant to Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing Act 2006 and its rules and regulations as amended, retain records and monitor and report suspicious transactions.

Warranties and Acknowledgments

You warrant to:

- use the Secure Online Portal and the Products in accordance with this Agreement, Disclosure Documents and any terms and conditions available on the Secure Online Portal and any associated websites,
- ensure that all required information to establish a Client's account is promptly provided to the Platform Provider,
- confirm every instruction from the Client in writing (whether original, facsimile, email or other acceptable electronic method),
- promptly advise the Platform Provider if you become aware of an actual or likely breach of the terms of any of this Agreement or of the laws by which they are regulated,
- immediately notify the Platform Provider if you cease to hold a financial services license or authorisation which permits you to promote the Secure Online Portal and the Products,
- not do anything that does or could cause the Platform Provider to be in breach of any obligations to Clients, and
- abide by the terms of your appointment as a Nominated Representative of your Client and in particular your obligation not to transfer your authorisation to another person.

You acknowledge and agree that:

- your Clients can change advisers and that your participation as a registered Adviser can be terminated at any time when the Platform Provider is notified of such change,
- the Platform Provider is not responsible to report on or supervise your obligations to any client or under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), and
- this Agreement shall terminate if the Adviser ceases to hold relevant license under the Corporations Act, not in compliance with any of its obligations under the relevant laws and regulations and terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Advice Fee Consent

- Prior to your access of the Secure Online Portal, you must provide copies of all Advice Fee Consents as duly signed by each of your Clients, and will provide all duly signed Advice Fee Consents in respect of each subsequent 12-month period for which your services are provided to each of your Clients ("Renewed Consent") within 10 days of receipt of your client's signed Renewed Consent.
- You agree to notify us in writing as soon as practicable following, but in any case no later than within 10 days of:
 - receiving any Withdrawal Notice,
 - any variation or amendment of the Advice Fee Consent taking effect, and a description of the nature and extent of the variation or amendment to the relevant Advice Fee Consent, or
 - any Advice Fee Consent ceasing to have effect under any Applicable Law.
- You acknowledge and agree that:
 - you have the obligation to comply with all Applicable Laws in relation to the Advice Fee and to review and update relevant information available on Secure Online Portal regularly and notify the Platform Provider if any changes are required,
 - the Platform Provider will rely on the Advice Fee Consent provided by you, and unless otherwise expressly agreed by the Platform Provider and the Promoter (as applicable), the Platform Provider and the Promoter have no responsibility to evaluate or verify the Advice Fee Consent,
 - the Platform Provider is not responsible for any delay or errors in the provision of the Platform arising from or in connection with your failure to perform your obligations under this section and the Applicable Laws in respect of the Advice Fee Consent, and
 - without limiting the generality of the above, the Platform Provider bears no responsibility or liability for any delay in processing or withholding payments of any clients' fees to your Dealer Group as a result of your failure to provide to us the Advice Fee Consent or Renewed Consent.
